

YOUR CAREER

Thank you for your interest in our company. We hope you discovered the job role for you and found our application process as efficient as possible. If you didn't find the job you were looking for, please don't hesitate in contacting us to discuss any potential upcoming roles that may suit you better. For now, please find more information about our company below:

GROW WITH US

As a young company we believe our fast paced, aspirational environment is challenging in a way that will push you to be your very best. If you're willing to take a step out of your comfort zone and aim high, then this is the place for you.

FUELLING YOU FURTHER

Welcome to our team

On accepting a position with the company you'll receive a welcome ebook with all the relevant and useful information you'll need to prepare for your first days. When those highly anticipated days arrive you'll receive an onsite induction to prepare for your role, including specific training on our products and services.

In it for the longhaul

Many of our employees enjoy long careers with us, having progressed to senior levels or fine-tuned their skills in other disciplines. So, whether you're just starting out in sales, customer service, marketing or finance – or joining us with a few years under your belt, we look forward to fuelling your ambition as we grow together. Our employees are key to achieving our goals and maintaining our values. As a progressive employer, we recognise this means giving you the ability to tackle your role with your best foot forward.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Your time at work should be rewarding, so we value the needs of our staff beyond their work requirements. The Staff Forum get together to discuss social events, fundraising options and any topics raised by their colleagues*. In addition to the forum, our biannual HR survey allows the chance to give feedback and views on your work life, helping towards a collaborative work place.

*Only at Lime and Aviate