

Audit Manager / Senior Manager

At C+T the success of our business is founded on being able to recruit the best people, who share our values and are driven to make a positive impact. As a result, we are recognised as a market leader and a firm that creates real and lasting value for our clients. We provide you with opportunities to drive change and make a difference.

We are looking for a qualified accountant (CA or ACCA) to join our Audit Assurance Management Team. If you are an experienced auditor ready to move into a Manager role, or an experienced Manager looking for a new challenge this role represents an ideal next step in your career.

About C+T

C+T brings together more than 150 specialists providing a wide range of high-quality professional services. Headquartered in the heart of Edinburgh's city centre, we also have offices in Inverness and Glasgow as well as a virtual office London. As members of a globally connected network of more than 175 firms in 83 countries, we bring world class capabilities and high-quality services to clients, and a fantastic workplace culture and global opportunity to our people.

Dynamic Working

We have adapted our working practices and have moved to a dynamic working model, giving our people flexibility around where they work. We trust you to work where you work best. This could be at home, at clients, in the office or a combination of these. All we ask is that you attend client meetings in person as necessary and have a face to face catch up with your team once a month.

C+T Behaviours

We are passionate about what we do, sharing and developing our knowledge and experience to provide our clients with the best possible service. Our behaviours describe how we should carry out our job and how we should conduct ourselves at work. They are important regardless of the team you work in, the level you are at or the job that you do. Whether you are an Associate, a Partner or part of the support team, you need to:

- care and take ownership
- collaborate
- continuously grow and improve
- plan for success
- lead (If you are responsible for others, or for a particular activity, project or client).

About the role

Our aim is to provide the advice and support that helps organisations thrive: a win-win for our clients, for us as people, and for wider society. If you share that drive, then we might be the place for you:

- Multi-sector client list including in fast-growing scale-ups, charities, large corporates, family-owned businesses, pension schemes, Registered Social Landlords and more, allowing you to gain broad or experience or specialize in a particular sector.
- A dedicated audit department allowing you to develop skills and expertise.
- A focus on utilizing the latest technology.
- Entrepreneurial and forward-looking culture with a focus on harnessing ideas and enthusiasm
- A full-service firm working with colleagues in tax, business advisory, accounts, payroll and corporate finance

About you

As a long-standing training firm, we put great value on learning and development and encourage our management team to work closely with our Audit associates and apprentices on their learning and career development. We are looking for someone with recent public practice experience as well as experience in managing your own portfolio of clients. Your skills/experience should include:

- Establishing close working relationship with clients
- Detailed review of audit working papers prepared by the audit team
- Coaching and mentoring of junior staff
- Experience of clearing assignments straight to partner
- Discussing audit and more general business issues with clients on each assignment and considering service solutions
- Delegating effectively and monitoring progress
- Identifying and resolving engagement related problems (deliverables, timing and fees)
- Management of fees and portfolio WIP
- Experience of CCH Audit Automation preferred but not essential
